FOREWORD

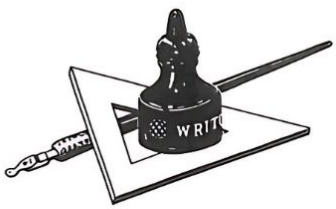

The Fair Oaks Class of fifty and two
Is presenting pictures and phrases for you.
Something to read when you're old and gray
Something to remind you of days passed away.
To remind you of your buddies, young and old
When the world outside is so windy and cold.

CLASS PROPHECY

Well, here it is — 1962. It has been exactly ten short years since fourteen young people, eligible to enter the big wide wonderful world, graduated from dear old Fair Oaks. We shall long remember those graduation exercises, but now on this beautiful May evening we are on our way to attend "The Reunion of the Class of '52".

As I park my big Cadillac Convertible, I notice the big beautiful mansion in front of me. Guess who the owner is and who the hostess will be for tonight! None other than Mrs. Ronald Porter, the former Betty Gilmore. As the butler opens the door I am surprised to see it is Delos Shaw. He has been working at the Porter's residence for five years. As the guests enter, Mrs. Porter comes to welcome them. As I glance around the room I see at the first table, Melvin Murphy, the world's famous jet pilot working with the United States Air Force and, of course, Nancy is there also. Sitting with Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are Ralph Myers and his wife. Ole is known around the world as the great car designer for the MYEROMOBILE COMPANY. Seated at the next table is Doctor Thomas Cover, Professor Ronald Cox, and Mr. Carl Schleman. Tommy is a psychiatrist at the Institution in Kankakee, Illinois. Ronnie, one of the great professors at the State University, is the Head of the Athletic Department. Carl is a successful dress designer from Paris and has made a special trip to this country just to attend the reunion. He has made several original dress designs and we understand that he is doing quite well. At the next table we see Major and Mrs. Darrough. Mrs. Darrough is the former Sue Williams. At the present they are living in South Dakota. Sitting with Major and Mrs. Darrough are Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lindahl. You will remember Mrs. Lindahl as the former Dorothy Miller. They raise cows, pigs, chickens, and a few little Lindahls on a big ranch near Fair Oaks. Over here we see General and Mrs. Robert W. Simonin, the former Marlene Dunn. Marlene recently returned from a trip to Europe. Sitting with General and Mrs. Simonin are Mr. Doyle Harrington and wife, and Mr. Jerry Armstrong and wife. Doyle is a great artist now residing in Rome. He has his own art gallery. Jerry also lives in Rome and is acting as Doyle's assistant, helping him sell his famous paintings. Sitting over there I see Miss Geraldine Longstreth, one of the world's greatest organists now living in New York City. She has just returned from a world wide tour. Sitting with Geraldine I see world renown, Miss Charlene Schima, Queen of Rollerskating. Charlene has her own troupe and travels across the United States as well as Europe.

As for me, I am Miss Schima's chauffeur. I was just peeking in the window.

CLASSES

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the members of the Senior Class of Fair Oaks High School, in this Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-two, do hereby declare ourselves to be of sound mind, body and spirit, not being under the influence of any person, drug, or liquor of any kind, do solemnly bequeath these, our most prized and cherished possessions, to the undergraduates of Fair Oaks High School.

PART I

We, the Senior Class, do hereby bequeath our ability to get along with the teachers to the Junior Class.

We, the Senior Class, do hereby bequeath our ability to produce a good play in our Junior and Senior years to the Sophomore Class.

We, the Senior Class, do hereby bequeath our ability to have parties to the Freshman Class.

PART II

I, Jerry Armstrong, do hereby bequeath my ability to be on the honor roll to the basketball boys and my weakness for girls to Gene Sheffer.

I, Thomas Cover, do hereby bequeath my curly hair to Ralph Murphy and my ability to drive carefully to Dean Woods.

I, Ronald Cox, do hereby bequeath my ability to grow to Halleck Long and my baritone voice to Charles Gilmore.

I, Marlene Dunn, do hereby bequeath my wool socks to Georgia Williams and my love for Soldiers to any loyal and eligible girl.

I, Betty Gilmore, do hereby bequeath my singing voice to Nancy Schultz and my red hair to Linda Murphy.

I, Doyle Harrington, do hereby bequeath my ability to decorate my car to Ray Bozell and my ability to draw to the Art Class.

I, Geraldine Longstreth, do hereby bequeath my girlish figure to Jessie Bailey and my ability to work in the office to Phyllis Phares.

I, Dorothy Miller, do hereby bequeath my ability to set my hair to Marlene Schultz and my ability to go steady to Mary Ellen Crawford.

I, Melvin Murphy, do hereby bequeath my cowboy boots to Delos Longstreth and my masculine figure to Jerry Brunton.

I, Ralph Myers, do hereby bequeath my ability to type to Evelyn Dykhuizen and my ability to get good grades in government to Eddie Cox.

I, Charlene Schima, do hereby bequeath my love for farmers to Darlene Vlahos and my ability to rollerskate to Leona Dunn.

I, Carl Schleman, do hereby bequeath my ability to play basketball to Bobby Williams and my false teeth to Edith Smith.

I, Delos Shaw, do hereby bequeath my ability to play my horn to Hugh Long and all of my good looks to Howard Carter. (Not that he needs it!)

I, Sue Williams, do hereby bequeath my ability to keep a good supply of chewing gum to the Band students and my ability to work in the cafeteria to Phyllis Herre.

PART III

To Mr. Minniear: We bequeath a Senior Class that makes straight A's in Government.

To Mr. Studer: A basketball team that will take the State championship.

To Mr. Blair: A carload of lumber and lots of new tools for the shop.

To Mr. Allen: Another Class to put on a successful play like the plays presented by the Seniors of '52.

To Mrs. Zimmer: A Home Economics Class that is neat and has initiative.

To Mr. Ferris: Another musically inclined class just like the Seniors.

To Miss Uesseler: A Typing Class like the Seniors were in '50 and '51.

To Mr. Sims: An Algebra Class that will get their lessons every day.

To Miss Markle: All of our study periods for her to eat dinner.

To the School: Another dozen Senior Classes just like ours!
